

Science to Policy Summit: Toxic Contaminants Success in Reducing Toxics Use & Obstacles to Further Reduction

Thursday, November 19, 2015
Hilton, Vancouver, Washington

9:00 Registration

9:30 Welcome & Overview

Debrah Marriott
Estuary Partnership

Message from The Honorable Earl Blumenauer
US House of Representatives

Dan Opalski
*US Environmental Protection Agency Region 10
Director of Office of Water & Watersheds*

10:00 Workshop: Peer-to-Peer Discussion with Growers

Panel: Changing Practices in Small Farm Agriculture, Nurseries, and Forestry

Speakers:

Jessika Tantisook, Starvation Alley
Cathy Fantz, Trillium Forest Farm
Brian Nakamura, Nakamura Orchards, Conservation District Board, Pesticide Stewardship Program
Clair Klock, Klock Farms

Voluntary Changes: *What did you do? What tools did you use?
What motivated you? How did you do it?*

Challenges: *How difficult was it? What challenges did you face?
What could we do differently? What changes would facilitate more application?*

12:00 Lunch Buffet

Release of the 2015 State of the Estuary Report

Keynote Address

The Honorable Dennis McLerran
*US Environmental Protection Agency
Region 10 Administrator*

Science to Policy Summit: Toxic Contaminants Success in Reducing Toxics Use & Obstacles to Further Reduction

1:15 Workshop: Peer-to-Peer Discussion about Reducing Stormwater

Panel: Changing Practices in Development and Stormwater Management

Speakers:

Doug Warneke, Toyota Logistics Services

Matt Graves, Port of Vancouver USA

Jill Sherman, Gerding Edlen

Jane Bacchieri, City of Portland Watershed Services

David Humber, Humber Design Group

Voluntary Changes: What did you do? What tools did you use?

What motivated you? How did you do it?

Challenges: How difficult was it? What challenges did you face?

What could we do differently? What changes would facilitate more application?

3:15 Next Steps & Close

Where Do We Go From Here & Charges to the Estuary Partnership

Gabriela Goldfarb

Office of Oregon Governor Brown

3:30 Adjourn